Kenny Chesney, born March 26, 1968 in Knoxville, Tennessee is an American country music singer and songwriter. He was raised in Luttrell. He is the son of David Chesney, a former elementary school teacher, and Karen Chandler, a hair stylist in the Knoxville area. Chesney has one sibling, a younger sister named Jennifer Chandler. In 1986 Chesney graduated from Gibbs High School where he played baseball and football. Chesney received his first guitar, "The Terminator," for Christmas and began teaching himself to play. Chesney studied advertising at East Tennessee State University in Johnson City, TN, where he was a member of the ETSU Bluegrass Program and the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Chesney married actress and producer Renée Zellweger briefly in 2005 until Zellweger filed an annulment letter.

He has recorded sixteen albums, fourteen of which have been certified gold or higher. He has sold over 30 million albums worldwide. He was awarded his fourth consecutive Entertainer of the Year award from the Academy of Country Music on May 18, 2008.
